To the Voters of Hempstead County - - -

I wish to thank the voters of Hempstead County, for the excellent support you gave me in the race for Representative Post No. 1, in the Democratic Preferential Primary on July 25th. I, received 1462 votes which was only 90 votes short of a clear majority over my two opponents for which I wish to express my sincere gratitude for the confidence you have shown in giving me such a large vote and I will strive at all times to hold your faith in a capable and upright

'I believe I am qualified and broad-minded cnough to represent the people all over the entire county and it makes no difference in which township I now reside, and as you good people know the Justices of the Peace are elected to represent their township in the Quorum Court, and the Representatives are elected to represent their entire county, and not by townships, in the Arkansas State Legislature. If I am elected to represent you in the next General Assembly you will find me fighting for the things that will benefit our county and state in a fair and honest way, and fighting against the bills that will be detrimental to our welfare, and I promise you that I will not turn the Lower House into a filibuster by long flowery speeches, but I will do my very best to show you some action. I solicit your votes and support on August 8th and ask my friends to keep up the good work which will carry us over the top to Victory with an overwhelming majority. Arthur C. Anderson

> To the Democratic Voters of Hempstead County:

Please accept the acknowledgment and thanks of a grateful woman for your vote and influence in the Preferential Primary which gave me first place in the race for County Treasurer.

As I am a widow and dependent entirely on my own work and efforts, and as I may not be able to see every voter personally before the 8th of August, the day of the final primary, I take this method of soliciting your continued support and help in my race for this office. Being personally familiar with this work and having had the experience in such service, I will attend to the duties of the office myself without the aid or expense of a deputy or outside help.

If you honor me with your support and elect me to this office, I pledge in return the same efficient and courteous service that I have always given in the Hempstend County Courthouse.

> To the Democratic Voters of Hempstead County:

Please accept the acknowledgment and thanks of a grateful woman for your vote and influence in the Preferential Primary which gave me first place in the race for County Treasurer.

As I am a widow and dependent entirely on my own work and efforts, and as I may not be able to see every voter personally before the 8th of August, the day of the final primary, I take this method of soliciting your continued support and help in my race for this office. Being personally familiar with this work and having had the experience in such service, I will attend to the duties of the office myself without the aid or expense of a deputy or outside help.

If you honor me with your support and elect me to this office, I pledge in return the same efficient and courteous service that I have always given in the Hempstend County Courthouse.

"Around five-forty, It was low three minutes past 12." If you saw him again?" Cameron said he would. Mason again asked about tides and then handed the judge "Then if anyone was going to move the yacht it necessarily would have been within two hours of high tide? That would mean by seven-forty in the evening?" "Well, you could have got off up until eight o'clock." In answer to questions, Cameron told then how Palermo had found the body and given the alarm on Saturday, Mason asked if he'd rented any boats on that Friday night. Cameron smiled, "I rented one rowboat to a man named Smith around nine o'clock. He said he wanted to study the nocturnal habits of sharks," Cameron said "Smith" was Mason's cross-examination was brisk. These men must be respected American citizens, otherwise they could not be members of the American Congress.

Why does Adkins list these particular names? Is it to arouse prejudice, to stir hatreds?

Among the Congressmen on whom he attempts to fasten suspicion are veterans of World War I and members of the American Legion,

An Unbiased Judgment We don't ask that you accept our judgment of Adkins and

The condemnation of demagogs came in furtherance of a resolution adopted January 28, 1942, by the Southeastern Jurisdiction, Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Methodist Church. Two paragraphs from that resolution are directly

"We recommend that, as one of our obligations as Christian citizens, we educate against the injection of race as an issue in political campaigns; "We further urge the women of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to use all their power against this practice."

That is the language of Methodist women of the South. Already this year, candidates who injected the race issue in their campaigns have been defeated in several Southern In its issue of May 16, 1944, the Arkansas Gazette said

Or at least it didn't work in the three states of the Deep South in which it was invoked." (Alabama, Florida, Georgia.) It will not work in Arkansas.

Now let's see just what was the question on which Fulbright voted, and to which Adkins takes exception?

It was not whether a Negro would be employed by the government.

It was not whether a Communist would be employed,

It was whether the National House of Representatives was to establish a precedent for taking time out from important business to say what persons should be hired by executive

Bill Fulbright voted against establishing such a precedent. Time has proved him right. No further attempt has been made to adopt such a practice.

Here are the details: Four men were named in an amendment to an appropriation bill as unfit for federal employment. They had not been tried and convicted by any tribunal, but the Republicans furnished enough votes to pass the amendment. Next day, they discovered that one of the four was a Negro. The Republicans backed up—so far as the Negro was

Bill Fulbright simply stood his ground. He didn't think Congress ought to single out individuals for such actions—and he voted his convictions, first, when there were four involved, and again, when only one was concerned.

A Contrast In Men and Methods

Suppose that Bill Fulbright were governor and that Adkins were his opponent. And suppose that in the Welfare Department, for the operation of which the governor is responsible to the people, there were two Negro case workers and a Negro stenographer, working in the same office with white members of the staff.

Don't you know that Adkins would be jumping up and down, denouncing Fulbright; That's the sort of "issue" raised by Homer Adkins now. Bill Fulbright does not regard the Welfare Department's employment of Negro staff members as

The Draft "Issue"

Attempts to hang the C. I. O. onto Bill Fulbright's candidacy have been made (1) by an anonymous circular quoting the Memphis Commercial Appeal (that newspaper sharply citicized this unjustified attack on Bill Fulbright) and (2) by "disclosure" of obviously prearranged correspondence between two men OUTSIDE ARKANSAS. Don't you know that if the C. I. O. had actually endorsed Bill Ful bright, the endorsement would have come to Fulbright, and not been put in the hands of his enemies?

When Dr. J. M. Robinson, Negro leader, endorsed Homer Adkins, the letter went to Adkins and was made public by Adkins. Robinson wrote Adkins: "We are passing the word down the line through our county committeemen to those who may be permitted to vote next Tuesday to support you without ado." What Adkins neglects to explain is that it was the State Selective Service office, headed by his appointee, General Compere, which decided that a Pope county board should classify Bill Fulbright,

General Compere's office could have required that the Washington County Board handle the case, although the chairman of that board was a law associate of Bill Fulbright's opponent in the Third District Congressional Campaign, then in progress.

But General Compere's office-no one else-elected to direct the Pope County Board to classify Bill Fulbright, and it placed him in 3-A, along with other pre-Pearl Harbor an issue on which to make a campaign for the Senate. Negro staff members are employed by the State Welfare Department, but Bill Fulbright has not attempted to impugn Adkins' attitude on the racial problem—even though Adkins is the first governor under which this condition has existed. Adkins is conducting his bid for office in a campaign of hatred, and incitement of suspicion and

On this "issue" he seeks to prejudice men in the armed services and their families against Bill Fulbright. Henry Cochran, commander of Lynn Shelton Post No. 27, American Legion, has made public a letter he received from Bill Fulbright two months before the G. I. Bill was voted on, in which Congressman Fulbright gave the legislation his unequivocal endorsement. Not a single vote was cast against the Act, and the Congressional Record of the vote reflects Bill Fulbright's pair for the measure. He was in Arkansas at the time, prepared to leave his campaign and return to Washington if the bill had been in jeopardy.

These facts, having been made public, were available to Adkins. But still he continues his campaign of misrepresentation and hate.

Trust among our people. Bill Fulbright asks support on the basis of his record and ability. The people know which of these men will bring credit to the state: and which would not. Their votes July 25th are proof of that.

The "World Education Issue"

Because Secretary of State Hull invited Bill Fulbright to serve as chairman of the United States delegation at an international conference on post-war education, Adkins charges that Bill Fulbright wants this country to pay for educating the world. That, of course, is ridiculous. If Bill Fulbright had declined to accept the appointment tendered by Secretary Hull, don't you know that Adkins would now be saying that he. (Fulbright) had shirked a duty to his country and had been afraid to

The Conference plan set up an Allied Commission through which the war-devastated countries can purchase school supplies in the United States, with their own money which they have on deposit here. Fulbright has not proposed that one dollar of American money be spent to educate Europe.

Bill Fulbright's concern for improved educational facilities for Arkansas is well known. He utilized the schools placed at disposal of Arkansas's youth by the taxpayers; he was president of the State University, his alma mater: he has two children who will attend Arkansas

His opponent's interest in education is purely political.

In its issue of May 16, 1944, the Arkansas Gazette said

Or at least it didn't work in the three states of the Deep South in which it was invoked." (Alabama, Florida, Georgia.) It will not work in Arkansas.

Now let's see just what was the question on which Fulbright voted, and to which Adkins takes exception?

It was not whether a Negro would be employed by the government.

It was not whether a Communist would be employed

It was whether the National House of Representatives was to establish a precedent for taking time out from important business to say what persons should be hired by executive

Bill Fulbright voted against establishing such a precedent. Time has proved him right. No further attempt has been made to adopt such a practice.

Here are the details: Four men were named in an amendment to an appropriation bill as unfit for federal employment. They had not been tried and convicted by any tribunal, but the Republicans furnished enough votes to pass the amendment. Next day, they discovered that one of the four was a Negro. Attempts to hang the C. I. O. onto Bill Fulbright's candidacy have been made (1) by an anonymous circular quoting the Memphis Commercial Appeal (that newspaper sharply citicized this unjustified attack on Bill Fulbright) and (2) by "disclosure" of obviously prearranged correspondence between two men OUTSIDE ARKANSAS. Don't you know that if the C. I. O. had actually endorsed Bill Fulbright, the endorsement would have come to Fulbright, and not been put in the hands of his enemies?

When Dr. J. M. Robinson, Negro leader, endorsed Homer Adkins, the letter went to Adkins and was made public by Adkins. Robinson wrote Adkins: "We are passing the word down the line through our county committeemen to those who may be permitted to vote next Tuesday to support you without ado." (From news article in Arkansas Gazette, July 20, 1944.)

Bill Fulbright did not seize upon that news article and magnify its implications, because to do so would have been contrary to his principles.

Adkins said that he did not solicit the Negro endorsement, and Bill Fulbright was content to leave it to the people to judge Adkins' sincerity Bill Fulbright has frankly stated that he welcomes all supportfor themselves.

For insinuating that Bill Fulbright who will be 40 next April, is a slacker, Adkins has been rebuked by Draft Board Members, Newspapers, World War I veterans, Arkansans now in military service and all who scratched Adkins' name July 25.

What Adkins neglects to explain is that it was the State Selective Service office, headed by his appointee, General Compere, which decided that a Pope county board should classify Bill Fulbright,

General Compere's office could have required that the Washington County Board handle the case, although the chairman of that hoard was a law associate of Bill Fulbright's opponent in the Third District Congressional Campaign, then in progress.

Not a single vote was cast against the Act, and the Congressional Record of the vote reflects Bill Fulbright's pair for the measure. He was in Arkansas at the time, prepared to leave his campaign and return to Washington if the bill had been in jeopardy.

These facts, having been made public, were available to Adkins. But still he continues his campaign of misrepresentation and hate.

The people know which of these men will bring credit to the state; and which would not. Their votes July 25th are proof of that. The "World Education Issue'

Because Secretary of State Hull invited Bill Fulbright to serve as chairman of the United States delegation at an international conference on post-war education, Adkins charges that Bill Fulbright wants this country to pay for educating the world. That, of course, is ridiculous. If Bill Fulbright had declined to accept the appointment tendered by Secretary Hull, don't you know that Adkins would now be saying that he. (Fulbright) had shirked a duty to his country and had been afraid to go to London?

The Conference plan set up an Allied Commission through which the war-devastated countries can purchase school supplies in the United States, with their own money which they have on deposit here. Fulbright has not proposed that one dollar of American money be spent to educate Europe.

Bill Fulbright's concern for improved educational facilities for Arkansas is well known. He utilized the schools placed at disposal of Arkansas's youth by the taxpayers; he was president of the State University, his alma mater: he has two children who will attend Arkansas

We Apologize!

This is a most disagreeable task, but it is a duty which we in Pulaski county owe to the rest of the state, for it was here that Homer Adkins got his start in politics. We had hoped, when he was elected governor, that his political standards had improved through the years—but to our sorrow we find that he still seeks to advance himself by spreading hatred-by creating divisions among our people. We in Pulaski county thoroughly repudiated him July 25th, when 13,439 citizens, out of 17,673, scratched his name. Bill Fulbright carried our county then, and his majority on August 8th will be between 10,000 and 12,000.

It would not be becoming of Senator-to-be Bill Fulbright to take time out from his presenta-tion of the real issues in order to give detailed answers to the distortions and misrepresentations directed at him by his desperate, despairing opponent, whose strident tones over the radio are reminiscent of the ranting that used to ride the air waves from central Europe. Hatel Hatel Hatel Every word, every phrase, every sentence from Adkins is full of it.

It's no pleasure, but we deem it a privilege, to set down here, in as few words as possible, the simple facts about the ridiculous charges with which Adkins is filling his speeches, his advertisements, his handbills. His charges against Bill Fulbright are as groundless as those he filed against John L. McClellan in 1938—which the Senate investigating committee reported were false.
